

THE JOHN MARSHALL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
FREEDOM AWARD
AND
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARDS
2015 Chair – Daniel A. Cotter

The John Marshall Law School Alumni Association is accepting nominations for the 2015 Freedom Award and the Distinguished Service Awards. All John Marshall alumni, faculty and staff are invited to submit nominations for the awards, which will be presented at the Freedom Award and Distinguished Service Awards. Please think about former classmates, current colleagues and other fellow alumni who may be deserving of this honor. Any of the Law School's 17,000 alumni are eligible for consideration for the Freedom Award and Distinguished Service Awards. There are no stipulations regarding the number of years in practice. We are looking for individuals who have made significant contributions to the school, the profession and their communities. The following categories will be open for nominations:

Freedom Award: In recognition of outstanding contributions to freedom in today's society. The nominee does not need to be a graduate of The John Marshall Law School. The Freedom Award honors a person, who through their thinking, accomplishments or profession reflects the basic tenets of freedom. Personal contacts and availability of nominee should be considered.

Distinguished Service Award: In recognition of outstanding achievement in a career field or personal endeavor. Consider those who have excelled in the practice of law, in government service, or as members of the judiciary. Outstanding accomplishments in community service, business, the military, the clergy, education, literature, the arts, or significant donations of time and talent to the law school. To assure a fair process in selecting Distinguished Service Award recipients, only current timely nominations will be considered by the Committee. Any prior nominees must be re-submitted.

2015 Freedom Award and Distinguished Service Awards Luncheon will be held May 29, 2015 at the Palmer House Hilton.

Please use the attached nomination form. The deadline for nominations is November 4, 2014. You may mail, fax or email your nomination. For more information, please contact:
